ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Google Data Analytics Professional Certificate	Coursera
Capstone: Bellabeat Wellness-Behavior Analysis	2026
kodyepugh.com/bellabeat-wellness-analysis

- Built a reproducible workflow for 29 Fitbit source tables and more than 15 million rows, using Excel, BigQuery/SQL, and Python to inspect, transform, validate, and document the data.
- Validated source quality and analytical boundaries across daily, hourly, minute, and second-level records, investigating duplicates, uneven feature coverage, and unresolved user identity before defining defensible analytical units.
- Analyzed 1,935 activity session-days and translated validated behavior patterns into testable Bellabeat product hypotheses.

Various Small Businesses	Remote
Website Consultant & Designer	2025 - 26

- Delivered three website reconstructions across athletics, workforce development, and community events, translating stakeholder needs and fragmented content into requirements, information architectures, CMS structures, user pathways, responsive interfaces, and publishing workflows.
- Diagnosed usability and platform gaps, configured structured CMS relationships and dynamic content workflows, and supported launch and post-launch iteration; one event site supported a sold-out, fundraising-goal cycle and generated 28 local-artist inquiries.

Stanford University & Loyola Marymount University	California
Academic Film Production Project Lead	2018 - 23

- Led multiple short-film projects from development through final delivery, coordinating teams of up to 10 across writing, casting, production, and post-production.
- Built and presented budgets, schedules, approvals, and resource plans; aligned people, locations, equipment, safety, and insurance needs as constraints changed.

Stanford University & Loyola Marymount University	California
NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete	2016 - 21
